See www.transformaction.com for further information.

2004 – present Course Instructor, Ryerson University

Toronto, Ontario

I developed and teach the on-line course, Intensive Family Involvement, for the School of Child and Youth Care. I also developed, and teach, the on-line course Residential Care Techniques for Child and Youth Care Workers. For 2 years, I also taught CYC48A/B, Directed Studies, which is the students' final year project.

2006 Clinical Practitioner in Residence, University of Washington

Seattle, Washington

The Clinical Practitioner in Residence Program was designed to honour, and continue, the practice influence of Henry W. Maier. As the 1st Practitioner in Residence, I was responsible for the development and delivery of experiential learning for undergraduate and graduate students. See here: <http://depts.washington.edu/sswweb/maier/firstprac.php>

2006 Instructor, Special Care Program, Vanier College, Montreal, Quebec.

2005 – 2006 Consulting Clinical Director, Pine River Institute

Hornings Mills, Ontario

As the Consulting Clinical Director for the Pine River Institute, a private therapeutic boarding school for adolescents with addictions, I was responsible for the hiring of clinical staff, staff training, development of the program and policy and procedures for the organisation, which includes residential, academic, therapeutic wilderness and aftercare. See: <http://www.pineriverinstitute.com>

1996 - 1999 Consulting Director, Nexus

Kentville, Nova Scotia

The re-design and development of a residential treatment facility for troubled adolescents from a traditional control-based program to a family-focussed, community based residential and outreach intervention program for youth and families based on a team and relationship approach. This program became a model for other program development in the residential community.

1995 - 2005 Adjunct Faculty

University of Minnesota, St. Paul

Adjunct instructor in the School of Child and Youth Studies.

1994 - 1995 Cadre Conseiller

Batshaw Youth and Family Centres, Montreal

The Batshaw Youth and Family Centres (BYFC's) was formed as a result of the merger of the 4 major English youth serving agencies in Montreal. It is the agency responsible for youth protection and young offenders services for English speaking troubled youth and their families. I was responsible for the development and implementation of the Orientation Table for the BYFC's. This table was mandated, through the development of an Individualised Service Plan, to define the objectives and service commitments for each family requiring or requesting on-going services from the agency.

1993 – 1995 Doctoral Student and Instructor

University of Victoria

During this time I completed the residency and research requirements for a PhD. in Child and Youth Care. As well I developed and taught Advanced Program Design in the Master's program for students in the Faculty of Human and Social Development.

1984 - 1994 Director of Treatment Services

Youth Horizons

Youth Horizons was one of the largest treatment agencies for troubled youth and their families in Canada. As Director of Treatment, I was responsible for the development, supervision and management of all treatment services of the agency including 2 residential treatment centres, 4 emergency shelter programs, 7 group homes, 1 day treatment program, 1 alternate school, 1 back-up unit, supervised apartment programs, community family intervention and an independent living program. The treatment services division consisted of a total clinical staff of approximately 100 permanent child care workers, 80 part-time child care workers, 15 social workers, 42 night supervisors, 16 program treatment supervisors, 3 program directors. The budget was approximately 7 million dollars and the client population was 200+. Major achievements during this time included: the development of a system of clinical supervision for all program staff; the transfer of one residential centre from a rural to an urban location; the implementation of a framework for intervention planning; the development of a philosophy of treatment; the design and development of external, non-residential services for children and families; the establishment of case conferencing and the development of a framework for staff professional development. As a member of the senior management team I also participated in the development and implementation of policies and procedures for the whole agency.

1990            Instructor, Special Care Counselling Program

Vanier Community College, Montreal

1986 - 1988   Staff Development Officer

Youth Horizons

Due to the absence of a staff training and development officer during this time, I was also responsible for the development and delivery of staff training for clinical personnel within the agency. This included family work, supervision, intervention planning, crisis intervention, team work and individual treatment. During this time I developed an overall framework for individual and team professional development.

1982 - 1984   Divisional Director: Adolescent Residential Services

Youth Horizons

While responsible for the supervision and management of the residential treatment centre, I was also responsible for the development, supervision and management of highly structured community based group home programs for troubled adolescents who could not manage regular community group homes. This was the beginning of Youth Horizon's movement to the treatment of severely troubled children in a community, rather than a rural, environment. The integration of family members was an integral part of the success of these programs

1981 - 1982   Divisional Director - Residential Treatment Centre

Youth Horizons

As director, I was responsible for overall supervision and direction of this 36 bed co-educational adolescent residential treatment centre. My duties included supervision of program supervisors, family intake and assessment, program development, administration and management of the centre. I developed a system of intervention planning and treatment, reduced dramatically the use of isolation rooms and implemented case conferencing and staff training.

1978 - 1981   Assistant Professor

School of Child Care, University of Victoria

I developed and taught skill acquisition and theory courses in child care and family systems work for child care, social work and nursing undergraduate students in the Faculty of Human and Social Development. I implemented video-feedback skills training and developed family-focus student placement settings. At this time I also held a cross appointment with the Division of University Extension and was responsible for the development and delivery of distant education and professional development training programs in B.C. for child and youth care workers, social workers, family support workers and others.

1976 - 1978   Executive Director

The Pacific Centre for Human Development, Victoria

As director of this community program my responsibilities included the supervision and administration of a staff of 20 child care workers, psychologists, family therapists, life skills coaches and teachers, in a community based agency which included family therapy, outreach, job training, alternate schools and public education. My accomplishments included the development of an in-home family treatment orientation and the stabilization of the agency within the local community.

1977 - 1978 Instructor in Verbal Communications

Faculty of Psychological Foundations, University of Victoria

I developed and taught summer courses in communication skills for teachers.

1975 - 1976 Master's Degree Studies (Applied Clinical Psychology)

Lakehead University, Thunder Bay, Ontario

1972 - 1975 Child Care Counsellor II

Reception and Diagnostic Centre, Victoria

In this role, I was responsible for the direct care and treatment of adolescents in this co-educational short-term residential placement program. For the last year of this program I also became one of the first Family Support Workers in the province of British Columbia.

1972 - 1973 Child Care Counsellor

Seven Oaks Residential Treatment Centre, Victoria, B.C.
